Exceptional pre-release access list
The Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between the Office for Budget Responsibility, HM Treasury, the Department for Work & Pensions and HM Revenue & Customs has been updated and now contains additional guidance on the scope and purpose of exceptional pre-release access to our documents.

The terms of the new MoU state that:

“The Treasury may request exceptional pre-release access greater than 24 hours to advanced drafts of OBR reports, which will be provided at the discretion of the OBR. Material provided on this basis will be restricted to a named list of Ministers, special advisors and/or officials. The OBR will publish the list of individuals that received the material, with the names of junior officials (below Senior Civil Service) withheld. The Treasury, DWP and HMRC will ensure that none of the content of the draft reports is released or briefed to the media or other outside persons before the OBR has published them.

The purpose of exceptional pre-release access on this basis is to allow departments to prepare ministerial statements, briefing and publications that will reflect and accompany the publication of an OBR report, where the department and the OBR agree that 24 hours would provide insufficient time to do so with sufficient guarantee of accuracy – for example because of the length or complexity of the report and/or the extent to which the department is likely to wish to refer to it in its own material. The most likely circumstances in which the OBR would grant such access is at Budgets and other fiscal statements, where somewhat earlier access to the Economic and fiscal outlook (EFO) is necessary to ensure the accuracy and relevance of the Treasury’s Budget document and the Chancellor’s accompanying statement to Parliament. In this instance, the OBR may provide draft EFO material a number of days in advance of it being finalised (typically on the Friday before a Wednesday statement).

During the time in which departments have exceptional pre-release access to OBR documents, the OBR is happy to receive factual comments (in line with paragraph 4.11 [of the MoU]), but it does not seek broader comments on the drafting of the document or the way in which analysis and conclusions have been described, which are matters for the OBR’s Budget Responsibility Committee. It is important to emphasise that the OBR will continue working on the report over subsequent days, so the final report may well differ considerably from that provided on exceptional pre-release for reasons that have nothing to do with any solicited or unsolicited input from departments. Hence the OBR also providing 24-hour pre-release of the final version.”

In accordance with those terms, the three lists below contain the people who received the draft version (either in full or in part) of the July 2018 Fiscal Sustainability Report on 11 July:
